Re: Notice of Application for Amortization Extension
Monterey Peninsula Restaurant & Hotel Pension Plan

Dear Participant:

The Trustees of the Monterey Peninsula Restaurant & Hotel Pension Plan (also known as the Monterey Culinary Pension Fund) are making a request to the IRS for an extension of the amortization period that can be used to pay off the Plan's liability for unfunded benefits. The goal is to take advantage of a provision of the Internal Revenue Code to extend the amount of time that can be taken to recover from the decline in the investment markets during 2008 and 2009.

For those receiving a monthly pension payment from the Plan, your payments will not be affected by this notice. If you have any questions about this notice, please feel free to contact us at 831-375-3132 or if outside of the Monterey area, at 800-559-3132. You can also contact us by email at service@montereyculinarytrusts.org or by mail at the address above.

Sincerely,
